Assistance League of Seattle does not copy, reproduce, publish, post, distribute, share or sell the name, personal contact information or description of donation of donor to any outside individual or business. Exceptions shall be those required by law, requested in grant applications or in connection with bank credit or debit card transactions that may be made without prior knowledge or consent of donor.

Assistance League of Seattle does acknowledge donors by name and/or description of donation, after the donors have given their written permission, in certain printed material such as chapter newsletters, brochures, press releases, event invitations or programs, stationery, solicitation letters, the organization’s website or other means of expressing appreciation for the donor’s assistance. A donor wishing to view samples of these publications may do so by contacting the chapter at the address below.

Assistance League of Seattle will provide, at least annually, a means (such as a check-off box) for both new and continuing donors to inform the charity if they do not want their names acknowledged on any of the printed material mentioned above. All donations shall be treated individually and with the same consideration, including multiple donations from a single donor. If a donor chooses to opt out of any acknowledgement listings in printed material, the donor’s name and address will be made available only to members and/or staff of Assistance League of Seattle who are responsible for managing the business of the corporation.

Donations received from a chapter member will be afforded the same considerations as stated in this policy. The personal information of a chapter member will not be shared without the written consent of the individual. Exceptions shall be those set forth in the National Assistance League® Donor Privacy Policy, a copy of which is on file with the chapter. Chapter members have access to this policy on the chapter’s website.
